

Kimberlee Morrow

PARTNER

Kimberlee has more than twenty years of experience defending employers throughout the state of Oregon against all types of employment claims in both state and federal courts. She has represented public entities as well as private sector employers providing litigation defense, advise, counsel and pre-litigation strategies, as well as conducting employment trainings, investigations and employment policy review.

Her litigation practice focuses on various types of tort actions, including sexual discrimination and harassment, retaliation, hostile work environment, ADA, Section 1983 claims, and various complex employment law actions. She has also served as outside counsel for a number of public and private sector clients providing ongoing counsel with a particular focus on medical clinics. She has provided counsel to these entities on a myriad of issues including employment strategies, policy review, peer review, pre-litigation counsel, confidential workplace investigations and employment separation issues.

Kimberlee is a native Oregonian and values her Eastern Oregon roots. When not practicing law, she hikes, travels, bikes, golfs and is actively involved in her book club and extended family.
